Chris Walters,
Plaintiff Pro Se

vs.

Michael Astrue,
Commissioner SSA

Case Number C0800483 EMC

The Honorable Edward M Chen Presiding

Notice of Informal Settlement Based On ADR ORDER

NOW COMES THE Plaintiff Christopher A Walters (SSI Claim 261-90-6357) before the Honorable United States District Court to enter this Notice of Informal Settlement Based on ADR Motions based on ADR ORDER of the Court to wit:

Notice Of Informal Settlement By Parties

Barring written or verbal objection of the Social Security Commissioner or his staff; the Plaintiff Pro Se Chris Walters would propose to give Notice of Informal Settlement of the action at law based on mutual interest and actions of parties:

1. The Social Security Administration released $4,000 in "back pay" to Chris Walters on March 21, 2008.
2. Chris Walters will be moving to Las Cruces, New Mexico and has been told he can rent a room later this week at the Plaza Suites Hotel 301 E University, Las Cruces, NM 88005-3399 for slightly over $600.00 a month.
3. Chris Walters should be able at that point of getting back on Medicaide and having the agreed medical work addressed by local doctors who accept this as payment.
4. Chris Walters will continue "vocational training activities" to enhance and improve his employment potential.

Discussion On Merits

It is expected that doctors affiliated with Rio Grande Medical Group can address Chris Walters medical problems involving loss of bowel control; surgery needed by vascular surgeon; blood clots in legs and chronic problems with MRSA infections previously identified by the Social Security Administration's doctors. MRSA and staph infections generally don't spread or exist well in areas like Las Cruces because the climate is very dry.
